

Dear Mr. H. H. H. H. H.

Although being English which I much regret as I feel in myself an Irish through and through having lived in Ireland I have seen plenty of suffering and the hardships bestowed on the poor another country who as Irish we must break with for all time, now I am in Cork. Examining the policy of partition and I wish to become a member in some small way which no matter how small may serve to in the fight for freedom, although I have no gift of a lawyer or such like I afraid I can't be much good as a writer but as I say may be I can help the other members, here in Graydon we have those and of Irish and it seems a pity there is no kind of club, for social and Irish speaking, especially, and to all good Irish to get together in the one good cause of freedom for Ireland. and discuss partition and now don't think this is a English catch but I offer you my services for Ireland for ~~its~~ her or perhaps for her liberation, not only my services but if needs be my life for Ever a country who has been robbed but soon Ireland shall be free so ever we say.

Ireland for Ever. Trusting you give my letter full consideration I always remain a true patriotic man of Ireland.

Yours Respectfully
Aubrey Snell.
